2017 Cedarville Alumna of the Year to Speak in Chapel

CEDARVILLE, OHIO – JoyAnna McBride, known to her listeners as radio personality Joy Summers at WAY-FM and Cedarville University's 2017 Young Alumna of the Year, will speak in chapel at Cedarville University on Thursday, Feb. 22, 2018.

Summers graduated from Cedarville University in 2010 and was hired immediately by WAY-FM as a local morning show co-host and production assistant. Eight years later, she still works for the radio station and has been moved to a prime-time afternoon show. In 2017, she was named one of the station's employees of the year.

Aside from her career, Summers has taken two international missions trips with Shoes for Orphans Souls and takes an annual Vision Trip with Compassion International to see their work overseas.

Summers and her husband, Hunter, live in Franklin, Tennessee.

Located in southwest Ohio, Cedarville University is an accredited, Christ-centered, Baptist institution with an enrollment of 3,963 undergraduate, graduate and online students in more than 150 areas of study. Founded in 1887, Cedarville is recognized nationally for its authentic Christian community, rigorous academic programs, strong graduation and retention rates, accredited professional and health science offerings and leading student satisfaction ratings.
